TISHA B'AV: DESTRUCTION & RENEWAL

"This I recall to my mind,
therefore I have hope.
Through the LORD's mercies we are not consumed, because His compassions fail not.
They are new every morning;
great is Your faithfulness.
'The LORD is my portion,'
says my soul,
'therefore I hope in Him!'
The LORD is good
to those who wait for him,
to the soul who seeks Him"

FROM YOUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR...

Some Good Summer Reading...

We lead such busy lives these days that many of us don't have much time for hobbies or other leisure activities given the demands of work and family. Reading books is a pursuit we have done more or less over the course of years with great enjoyment.

Many still, either on their own or through any number of book clubs, appreciate loosing themselves in a good book whether a classic or one hot off the presses. MJCBY now has book clubs sponsored by both Sisterhood and Men's Club that meet throughout the year (September – June) enjoying the camaraderie of others and discussing each book gaining new insights based on others perceptions of the very pages that you have read. So whether your genre is history or mystery, a book can be a valued companion indeed.

When summer comes around, whether you are on hiatus from school or down at the beach, reading lists are abound. Hardcover, softcover or kindle; summer reading takes on a different feeling without the hustle and bustle of the rest of the year.

So I ask you to consider adding these 5 books to your list. They truly make up a saga containing mystery, legend, drama, betrayal, first love, wanderings, men and beasts and a real doozy of a cliff hanger for an ending. Are your intrigued yet? Well many of you probably have these books somewhere in your house and just maybe on a bookshelf staring at you right now.

They go by a few names but how about just one – the Torah or the Five Books of Moses. More copies of these 5 books exist in the world than any other. More has been written about their contents and entire institutions have been created just for their study.

Even if you come to services every Shabbat and follow along with the Torah reading, so much more can be gained by really spending time with Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Number and Deuteronomy. You will not be surprised that you will learn or see something new or different when you read through the pages of these books.

As an example, this past Shabbat, as I write this (Shelach or the Spies), as the spies went into the new land, they passed through Hebron and there was no mention that this was the place of burial for their patriarchs and matriarchs. What is that about? And that cliffhanger I referenced? At the end of the 5 books, Moses ascends that mountain and looks upon the land that G-d had promised to Israel but that he could not enter. Without the book of Joshua, this is where the story ends without knowing whether they really achieve G-d's promise.

So along with your detective stories or somebody's new "tell all," take along your Etz Chaim and get in touch with your Jewish side. If you do, we will all give you a "yasher koach".

Have a great summer everyone,

Gerry

MOVIE NIGHT

The movie kicking off the next season is The Man in the Glass Booth.

Arthur Goldman is a rich Jewish industrialist, living in luxury in a Manhattan high-rise. He banters with his assistant Charlie, often shocking Charlie with his outrageousness and irreverence about aspects of Jewish life. Nonetheless, Charlie is astonished when, one day, Israeli secret agents burst in and arrest Goldman for being not a Jewish businessman but a Nazi war criminal. Whisked to Israel for trial, Goldman forces his accusers to face not only his presumed guilt--but their own.

Sunday, September 10 at 7 PM is the tentative date for showing this most interesting film. As always, the movie and refreshments are free.

MJCBY IN PARTNERSHIP WITH NCJW

Special 'Back 2 School Store'
Sunday - August 6

The Morristown Jewish Center and the National Council of Jewish Women-West Morris, join forces to help youngsters served by Homeless Solutions prepare for back to School.

Many of us remember the excitement of having new clothes for a new school year. Now, schoolchildren from 4 to 17 years old in housing provided by Homeless Solutions in Morristown, will have a similar experience when they shop for back-to-school items—all free—at a special 'Back 2 School Store" event.

Donations of back to school items from individuals and retailers throughout the area will help fill our shelves with new clothes and other supplies to prepare the students for the upcoming school year.

The 'Back 2 School Store' project will outfit each of approximately 50 children. Volunteers—both women and men—are needed as "personal shoppers," to help the children try on clothes and shoes, and choose from all the options. Each child will shop for a complete new outfit of clothing: shirt, pants, winter jacket and sneakers, plus underwear, socks, hat and gloves. Additional volunteers will help with setup and breakdown and other tasks before, during and after the event.

To sponsor a child for $150 for the complete outfit or make any size donation send your check payable to NCJW to:

$150 head, shoulders, knees and toes
$100 shoulders, knees and toes
$50 knees and toes
$36 just toes

MJCBY Attn: Back2 School,
177 Speedwell Avenue, Morristown, NJ 07960

We need many volunteers to make a project of this size sucessful. Morning - setup, Afternoon - Personal shoppers, Late Afternoon - Breakdown and cleanup.

Shalom Yeladim

From Michelle Nulman:

I am delighted with the opportunity to be the Shalom Yeladim Director. Spending my time with the youngest children in our synagogue and being involved in their learning experiences is the best part of my job.

My journey in SY started 15 years ago when I moved to Morristown with 1 year old twins and I started looking for a baby group. Not only did I find a nice baby group, but I found a warm, welcoming and loving preschool that soon became a home for my family. After my third son was born, I lead "mommy and me" and started working in SY as a new two's teacher. Fast forward 15 years and I have been a parent, a teacher, a religious school teacher, a religious school director and now the preschool director. Who would have thought that discovering a nice baby group was going to have such an impact in my life?

Just a little history, I was born and raised in Mexico City where I spent my first 25 years and I earned my degree in Special Education. After getting married in Mexico, my husband and I moved to the US to pursue a Masters. I earned my Masters in Special Education from the University of Pittsburgh and moved to New Jersey. Through the years, I have taught children with different challenges such as learning disabilities, speech and language disorders, hearing impairments, autism, PDD and behavior problems as well as children who function on or above grade level. These experiences have given me the knowledge and tools to accommodate children with different learning styles and to incorporate different teaching methods in a classroom.

I look forward to working with you, our wonderful team of teachers and your children. I love watching the children's little faces light up when they learn something new. The sense of pride and accomplishment fills the classes in Shalom Yeladim. I can't wait to work closely with all of you to develop a great relationship.

Please contact me if you have ay questions or stop by the office and say Hi. I am looking forward to a successful year!

Family News

Alexandra Jillian Grushkin

On Saturday, September 2, our daughter, Alexandra, will be called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah. It is with great joy and pride that we invite the community to celebrate this momentous occasion with our family. Alexandra is our first born child, the first grandchild on both the Grushkin and O'Connell sides of the family and the first of her generation of cousins and siblings to celebrate a B'nai Mitzvah.

The continuation of her Jewish heritage is extremely important to Alexandra. Her maternal great-grandparents escaped Poland to Israel shortly before that avenue was closed to Jews seeking refuge from the ever increasing threat of Nazism. Her maternal grandmother came to America from Israel as a 12 year old Israeli and for her entire life she exemplified what it means to be a proud Jewish woman as a wife and mother, as a member of her religious community and as a highly regarded biblical scholar. The intellectual and spiritual bond between Alexandra and her beloved Grandma Esther was very strong and endures beyond Esther's passing in 2015.

Alexandra has always had a deep curiosity for the world around her. At age 2, she declared she would be a paleontologist when she grew up. At age 4, she added Yankees baseball player. At age 6, Broadway star and artist were added to what affectionately became known as the Renaissance Woman's List.

A student at Kent Place School in Summit, NJ, Alexandra greatly enjoys a wide variety of school related pursuits including academics, sports and music. An accomplished choral singer, Alexandra has participated in a number of school and festival choirs. She is a member of the New Jersey Youth Chorus and most recently, performed at Carnegie Hall in the Middle School Honors Performance Chorus. In addition to singing, Alexandra also plays cello and has set her sights on becoming an accomplished guitar and ukulele player.

For her Bat Mitzvah project, Alexandra is organizing an "Art with a Heart" exhibit and sale. This will be the second such event Alexandra has organized to benefit local charities. The first, held when she was 10 years old, benefited Cornerstone Family Programs. The upcoming exhibit will benefit Girls Helping Girls Period and Roots and Wings. The "Art with a Heart" concept is to invite children from the community to exhibit a minimum of 3 original works of art of any media, with at least one piece donated for sale. The one-day exhibit, to be held at Macculloch Hall Historical Museum in Morristown, is open to the public and will be held in the Fall 2017. If you are interested in participating or in learning more, please contact Alexandra at alexandragrushkin@gmail.com.
