FROM YOUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR...

Free at Last, Free at Last ...

In August of 1963, 300,000 people gathered on the mall in Washington, DC in support of civil rights. They heard Dr. Martin Luther King, standing in front of the statue of Abraham Lincoln, deliver his stirring "I have a Dream" speech which closes with, "Free at last, Free at last, Great G-d Almighty, we are free at last." This coming April 4, will mark the 50th anniversary of the tragic assassination of Dr. King at the Lorraine Hotel in Memphis. Tennessee.

The words of Dr. King on that momentous day in the summer of 1963 resonate with all humankind and, very personally, in the hearts and minds of the people of Israel this time of the year as we celebrate our deliverance from our bondage in Egypt for 400 years. Though we crossed through the sea of reeds by the power of G-d's outstretched arm, freedom did not come easily to our ancestors in the desert. Just the same, the overwhelming emotions of that day in August was a start, but not enough to bring "freedom" to all those who are still oppressed in this world. The challenges that still existed after the March on Washington in 1963 were put into stark focus on the evening of April 4, 1968 in Memphis.

Let's go back to that warm summer day that was filled with exhilaration and remember during this time of Passover that Jews who played such a significant role in the Civil Rights movement, who marched, organized and even died for the cause were most present on that day in August.

Do you remember that Bob Dylan (Robert Zimmerman) sang "Only a Pawn in the Game," a retelling of the murder of Medgar Evers. Peter (Yarrow), Paul and Mary sang "Blowin in the Wind," and with Pete Seeger sang, "If I had a Hammer."

I mention one other speaker who stood at the podium at the Lincoln Memorial just before Dr. King and gave his own stirring remarks. He was the President of the American Jewish Congress, the rabbi of the historic Newark Synagogue, B'nai Abraham (now in Livingston); he was a champion of Civil Rights and walked and worked with Dr. King, many years before Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel joined arms with Dr. King from Selma to Montgomery in March 1965. His name is Rabbi Joachim Prinz and here are some of the words in spoke at the March on Washington:

As Americans, we share the profound concern of millions of people about the shame and disgrace of inequality and injustice which make a mockery of the great American idea.

As Jews we bring to this great demonstration, in which thousands of us proudly participate, a two-fold experience -- one of the spirit and one of our history.

When I was the rabbi of the Jewish community in Berlin under the Hitler regime, I learned many things. The most important thing that I learned under those tragic circumstances was that bigotry and hatred are not the most urgent problem. The most urgent, the most disgraceful, the most shameful and the most tragic problem is silence.

America must not become a nation of onlookers. America must not remain silent. Not merely black America, but all of America. It must speak up and act, from the President down to the humblest of us, and not for the sake of the Negro, not for the sake of the black community but for the sake of the image, the idea and the aspiration of America itself.

On the night of April 4, 1968, I was a young college sophomore who was stunned like many and could not sleep. I stayed up and composed some words from my heart that began: "A great man died today, struck in the neck by a bullet called Racism..."

I hope for us all: Jews during Pesach, Christians during Easter, and all those who pray for, march for and work for Freedom that 2018 will become a turning point for humanity.

FROM OUR PRESIDENTS

I had a very scary moment at work the other day. A co-worker sat down across from me and said he did not feel well. After a minute of asking him questions about what he ate and drank that day, and what was wrong, he put his head down and then became unresponsive. None of my colleagues that joined to help had been in a situation like this before. We were scared. We did not know if he had a medical condition or how to contact his family. After calling 911, we unsuccessfully tried to unlock his iPhone to call his wife. Ed was fine in the end, but I was rattled by the situation.

What I learned that day, however, was that my iPhone can store a "Medical ID" with emergency contact and medical information. This information is accessible even when the phone is locked. I am not a health care professional, but I figure that having this information on-hand could help others help me if I was ever in an emergency situation. I am reminded of the famous line for the movie Jerry Maguire: "Help me, help you."

Help others help you – take a minute and complete your Medical ID in your smartphone. Check with your parents and children that they do the same.

For instructions on how to establish "in case of emergency" contacts, please refer to <https://www.pcmag.com/article2/0,2817,2489237,00.asp>

Facts of Passover

A SPECIAL NOTE- If you have room for guests at your seders or if you would like an invitation to a Seder, please be in touch with Rabbi Nesson 973-538-9292 or ravdjn@aol.com

Passover Facts and Instructions for Preparation:

This year Passover begins Friday night, March 30 and ends Saturday Night, April 7. The Fast of the First Born, or SIYYUM, is held on Friday, March 30 at 6:45am. A Siyyum (Conclusion of the Study of a Portion of the Rabbinic Literature) is held at the conclusion of the morning Minyan followed by a Seudah Shel Mitzvah so that the first-born may eat.

Bedikat Chametz (the search for Chametz) occurs on Thursday evening March 29. The Chametz should be burned by 11:30am on Friday March 30. The stove should be koshered for Pesach and all cooking done using Pesach pots and utensils. The synagogue has a limited number of Bedikat Chametz sets. If you would like one, please call Gerry at the office to reserve it.

Foods:

Labels and tags marked "Kosher L'Pesach" are of no value unless they have a Rabbinic signature. This also applies to products manufactured and grown in Israel.

Forbidden for use: Leavened bread, cakes, biscuits and crackers, cereals, wheat, oats, barley and all liquids, which contain ingredients or flavors made from grain alcohol. Rice, dry beans and peas and kitniyot are not consumed by most Ashkenazic Jews. Sephardic Jews and others who eat kitniyot may eat these products.

Permitted for use requiring NO "Kosher L'Pesach" Label: in unopened packages or containers. These foods require no Kosher L'Pesach label: Natural coffee, tea, sugar, salt, pepper, vegetables (except peas and beans.)

Permitted for use if certified for Passover use by a competent Rabbinical authority: passover flour, Passover noodles, candies, cakes, beverages, canned and processed foods, milk, butter, cheese, jams, jellies, relishes, dried fruit, salads, oils, vegetable gelatin, shortenings, wines, vinegar and liquors.

Dishes and Utensils:

Only dishes and utensils specifically reserved for Passover should be used with the following exceptions:

Table silverware made wholly of metal, if used during the year, may be used on Passover if thoroughly scoured and immersed in boiling water. Table glasses may be used after scouring. Fine china ware, if not used for a year is permitted.

Metal pots and pans used for cooking purposes only (but not for baking) if made wholly of metal though not used during the year, may be used on Passover if first thoroughly scoured and immersed in boiling water.

Utensils used for baking during the year cannot be used during Passover. Earthenware, enamelware and porcelain utensils used during the year may not be used during Passover.

The stove is prepared for Passover by thoroughly scrubbing and cleansing all parts and turning on the full flame in the bake oven with all the grates in the oven.

A dishwasher may be used after thoroughly scouring with boiling water and the use of a new tray.

MICHIRAT CHAMETZ – SELL YOUR CHAMETZ

On Passover we are forbidden, not only eat Chametz, we are also forbidden to own any chametz, including our everyday dishes, pots and pans, wherever it is located, including our home, office, car and the like.

We therefore appoint Rabbi Nesson, as our agent, to sell our chametz to a non Jew, who will 'own' our chametz for the duration of the holiday.

In order to sell your Chametz before Passover, please fill in the following statement and give it to the Rabbi or send, fax or e-mail it to the MJCBY Office by 10am March 30, 2018.

The sale of chametz is effective at 11:15 am on March 30, and chametz becomes available for use again at 8:11 pm on April 8, 2018.

I authorize Rabbi David Nesson to be my agent in selling my Chametz for the duration of the Passover Holiday, 5778-2018.

I understand Chametz will be bought back after Passover.

SALTED CHOCOLATE MATZO TOFFEE

Ingredients

1 cup (8 oz.) salted butter, plus butter to grease pan
4 to 5 sheets lightly salted matzos
1 cup packed dark brown sugar
1 (12-oz.) package semisweet chocolate chips
1 cup chopped toasted pecans
1/4 teaspoon Sea salt, if desired

How to Make It

Step 1

Preheat oven to 350°F. Line an 18- x 12- inch rimmed baking sheet with heavy-duty aluminum foil. Grease foil with butter. Arrange matzos in prepared pan, breaking as necessary to fit and completely cover bottom.

Step 2

Bring 1 cup butter and brown sugar to a boil in a heavy saucepan over medium, whisking occasionally. Boil, whisking constantly, 3 minutes. Carefully pour mixture over matzos; spread over matzos.

Step 3

Bake in preheated oven until bubbly all over, 8 to 10 minutes. Carefully remove baking sheet from oven to a wire rack. Let stand 1 minute. Sprinkle chocolate chips over top; let stand until chips soften, about 2 minutes. Spread chocolate over brown sugar mixture. Sprinkle with pecans; sprinkle with salt, if desired. Let stand at room temperature 30 minutes. Chill toffee until firm, about 30 minutes. Break or cut into about 36 pieces. Store in an airtight container up to 1 week in refrigerator.

MATZA LASAGNA

Ingredients

6 matzo sheets
4 eggs, lightly beaten
1 (24 ounce) carton cottage cheese
1 (8 ounce) package shredded mozzarella cheese, divided
1 (28 ounce) jar marinara sauce

How to Make It

Step 1

Preheat an oven to 350 degrees F (175 degrees C).

Step 2

Soak matzo sheets in a large bowl of hot water until tender, about 30 seconds. Drain. Combine eggs, cottage cheese, and 1/2 of the mozzarella cheese in a bowl. Pour 1/2 of a cup of marinara sauce on the bottom of a 9x13 inch baking pan. Place 2 matzo sheets over the sauce, then pour another layer of sauce over the sheets. Spread 1/2 of the cheese mixture on top, then another layer of sauce. Continue layering until all the matzo sheets are used, finishing with a layer of sauce. Sprinkle the remaining mozzarella cheese over the top.

Step 3

Bake in the preheated oven until cheese is melted and sauce is bubbly, 30 to 40 minutes.

ALMOND-APRICOT MACAROONS

Ingredients

2 tablespoons matzo cake meal
3/4 cup whole blanched almonds
3/4 cup matzo cake meal
3/4 cup sugar
1/2 cup chopped dried apricots
1 teaspoon grated orange rind
1/4 teaspoon almond extract
3 large egg whites

How to Make It

Step 1

Preheat oven to 325°.

Step 2

Line a baking sheet with parchment paper, and sprinkle with 2 tablespoons matzo cake meal.

Step 3

Place the almonds in a food processor; pulse 3 to 4 times or until coarsely chopped.

Step 4

Lightly spoon 3/4 cup matzo cake meal into a dry measuring cup; level with a knife. Add 3/4 cup matzo cake meal, sugar, and remaining ingredients to almonds; pulse 3 to 4 times or just until combined. (Mixture will be sticky.)

Step 5

Using hands dusted with matzo cake meal, divide dough into 16 portions. Roll each portion into a ball; pinch tops to form a pear shape. Place on prepared baking sheet. Bake at 325° for 20 minutes or until lightly browned. Cool on a wire rack.

HONORING OUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR GERRY GROSS

May 6, 2018

Join us as we honor our Executive Director – Gerry Gross – on the occasion of his retirement. In his role as Executive Director, as a congregant, and as a friend, Gerry has been a pillar of the MJCBY community. He represents the best of our synagogue family.

Gerry's generous commitment of energy, time and leadership as one of our key professional staff and as a dedicated member embodies the heart of our synagogue. With his warmth and cheer, and with his friendly smile, during the week and on Shabbat, Gerry has made MJCBY a wonderful Jewish home. Through his ruach, Gerry inspires others to join MJCBY and to join in the life of our shul.

As we mark another milestone in the history of our synagogue – Gerry's years of dedicated service to his larger family – we invite you to celebrate with Gerry and Donna on May 6 and to wish him well on his retirement as Executive Director.

Please share your thoughts, love and appreciation for Gerry by including a special message in his Tribute Journal. Enclosed you will find a form to share your thoughts and to wish our distinguished honoree many years of strength and good health.

Please don't delay as the deadline for Tribute ads is TUESDAY, MARCH 13, 2018.

B'Shalom,

Fern Spitzer & Melissa Weiner
Co-Chairs

LOOKING TO GIVE BACK TO YOUR COMMUNITY THROUGH GOOD DEEDS?

We serve less fortunate members of the Morristown community at the Morristown Soup Kitchen, the 4th Sunday of every month.

Our SOUP-er volunteers for January: Carol Leiwant, Rachel Richman, Rita Fand, Howard Buxbaum, Rose and Herb Levine, Kim Synalovski and Ilisa and Peter Ferrara

The Social Action Committee is looking for new members. If you are interested in extending what MJCBY does beyond the Soup Kitchen and Family Promise activities, we would like to hear from you. SIMCHA SHABBAT:

Simcha Shabbat is a monthly celebration of the wedding anniversaries and milestone birthdays of our members.

During the Shabbat service, members will be recognized on the bimah for their simcha and receive a special gift.

Our eighth Simcha Shabbat was held on February 17 when we honored on the bimah three couples who celebrated a wedding anniversary and three congregants who had milestone birthdays. MJCBY would like to wish a mazal tov to those who had a simcha in January or February:

Anniversaries:

Charles & Carol Leiwant
Alan & Kay Salzman
Joe & Florence Sager
Barry & Ricki Anne Sokol
Adam Day & Elisa Udaskin

Milestone Birthdays:

Gerry Gross
Arthur Israel
Ira Kaplan
Anita Lieb
Harold Levy
Greg Milich
Barbara Saltzman

Our next Simcha Shabbat will be on April 14 when we will celebrate with our congregants having a wedding anniversary or milestone birthday in March or April.

To ensure that we have everyone's correct wedding anniversary date, we ask that all of our members to take a moment to log into their online ChaverWare accounts to check that they have properly inputted this information and that their email address listed is correct. If you need help with ChaverWare please contact Gerry Gross in the office.

If you have any questions about Simcha Shabbat please contact Jeff Grayzel, the MJCBY Simcha Shabbat coordinator, at grayzel@verizon.net.

THANKS TO ALL WHO ATTENDED & ORGANIZED MJCBY'S SOLD-OUT COMEDY NIGHT!!

A wonderful time was had by the over 210 congregants, family and friends who attended MJCBY's Comedy Night on Saturday, February 3. Attendees enjoyed a fantastic appetizer & dessert buffet that was beautifully created by our Sisterhood Kiddush Committee, lovely cocktail music generously provided by Ed Fleischman and Mark Stein, an open bar and TONS of laughs. It was a fun night of schmoozing, noshing and chuckling during the performances of four comedians in total - all headlined by the very talented Joe Larson.

Thank you to our generous sponsors: Karen & Fred Benton, Robin Cornick & Jack Benvent, Dorothy & Irv Cohen, Heidi Schleifer & Ed Fleischman, Beverly & Ira Hammer, Barbara Kavadias & Hanoch Yefet, Kathy & Steve Neibart, Rabbi David Nesson, Diane Smith & Alan Rothstein, Fern & Donald Spitzer, Michelle & Keith Usiskin.

Thanks as well to our Event Chair, Jeff Grayzel, the entire event committee, and all those that helped to make the night a great success.

- a. We feed our sukkah builders when they erect and take down the sukkah.
- b. We provide all that ice cream and the toppings for the synagogue's Simchat Torah celebration.
- c. We feed participants at our Tefillin & Shacharit and speaker events.
- d. We provide a generous breakfast at our annual blood drive, which this year collected 22 pints, enough to help 66 recipients.
- e. We provide brunch for the sixth graders and their families as they complete their tefillin lesson and learn their Torah portions.

f. We purchase b'nai mitzvah gifts for boys (kiddush cups) and girls (candlesticks) on their big day.

MJCBY RELIGIOUS SCHOOL TU B'SHEVAT EXPERIENCE

As the chill of winter turns to the promises of spring, we ready ourselves and our homes for Passover: Festival of Matzah, Freedom and Spring! Pesach is filled with possibility to retell our story of our Exodus through all of our senses at our seder tables.

Rabbi Hartman (also a philosopher) shares, "A Legacy of Luggage." He says, "Judaism imposes a vital task on parents: to tell the children their people's story. What the child does with this past, no parent can decree. Parents provide their children with luggage." Whether the child will open up the suitcases and use their contents is beyond our reach...we must try instilling memories, that amaze and connect our children to our story an entire lifetime; their inheritance is a weight of generations, an awareness that our story continues to begin with Abraham and Sarah.

In Religious School, we will do our share to instruct, inspire and motivate engagement in preparing for and participating in your family seder. In addition, MJCBY presents 300 Ways to Create an Unforgettable Seder. Dr. Murray Spiegel, as seen on PBS, will share ways to engage different children and families on Sunday, March 25 at 10:30am. Please join us! (see details on flyer)

GABRIELA ZAIRI

We would love to welcome the congregation to Gaby's Bat Mitzvah service and kiddish on Saturday, March 10, 2018 when she will be called to the torah.

Gaby is a seventh grader at Gottesman RTW Academy who loves painting, reading and being with her friends. She attends Camp Kimama in Israel each summer where she does fine art, practices her Hebrew and reconnects with her Israeli cousins and extended family.

Gaby is a kind person who loves to babysit and help out with younger children and babies. She enjoys shabbats where she gets to spend the evening with her grandparents, aunts, uncles and cousins eating and laughing.

We are thankful to the Cantor, Rabbi and the MJCBY staff for teaching, guiding and counseling Gaby and our family through the Bat Mitzvah process. Even though it's our fourth time around, it takes a village.

We are excited to share this milestone with all of you and hope to see each of you at services and the kiddish!

ELAN GOLDBERG

We welcome the congregation to join us on Saturday, March 24, 2018 when our son, Elan will be called to the Torah as a Bar Mitzvah.

Elan is a hard working seventh grader at Randolph Middle School. His favorite subjects are math, science and technology. Elan is passionate about playing soccer and has been playing for FC Bayern Munchen Parsippany Soccer Club for the past three years. His other passion is music and he enjoys being a part of Randolph Middle School Jazz Band as a first tenor sax. Elan loves outdoors and enjoys camping at Lake George, NY every summer, as well as downhill skiing every winter.

Elan is a very kind and compassionate person who is always ready and eager to help someone in need. Nothing is more important to him than friends and family. Elan's friends respect him for his reliability and honesty. He is most happy playing soccer and golf with his older brother David, whom he loves and respects.

For his Bar Mitzvah project, Elan chose to be a part of SNAP (Special Needs Athletic Program) where he worked with young children with various disabilities and helped them learn how to play soccer, his favorite game. He chose to volunteer for this program because he felt the importance of including children with disabilities and giving them an opportunity to participate and enjoy sports. Elan made new friends and learned so much more from this experience – not just about teaching soccer to other kids, but about forming strong and lasting bonds while creating self esteem and boosting confidence in these children.

Our family wishes to thank the entire MJCBY staff and clergy for their support in helping Elan reach this important milestone. Elan's brother David, grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins, friends and of course us, his parents, are so proud of how hard Elan has worked to prepare for this important day and we look forward to celebrate with him.
