FROM THE DESK OF THE RABBI

Adopt a Yarzheit A New Mitzvah for a New Year

Some of you may already know (and now all of you know) that I spent the first five years of my Rabbinat at Agudath Israel Synagogue in Montgomery, Alabama.

It was a wonderful experience. When I came to our congregation in 1988 (yes, this fall I will begin my 30th year here at MJCBY) I continued to stay in touch with that Congregation. I still receive their monthly newsletter.

A few months ago Rabbi Scott Kramer, known as Rav Malki, (from his hebrew name Melech) from Agudath Israel, wrote a Newsletter article that caught my attention. He presented an idea, under the title, Adopt a Yarzheit, which resonated with me. I hope it will resonate with you too. So I called him and asked if I could borrow the idea for our congregation. He said 'yes.'

The idea is simple and profound.

Every month in our newsletter we list the yarzheits of members of our congregation who have passed on to the next world. At the Friday night and Shabbat services we read the names of those whose yarzheits we recall that coming week. We also offer the opportunity for those observing those yarzheits to come to Shabbat morning services for an aliyah to the Torah in their memory.

Morristown Jewish Center and Agudath Israel share in the fact that we are both long time established congregations. Agudath Israel was founded in 1902 and this year will celebrate her 116th anniversary. Our MJCBY was founded in 1899. How exciting that in January of 2019 we will celebrate our 120th anniversary! This longevity means that over the course of time, some of the family members who would remember our congregants have moved away or we no longer have contact information or the next generation have themselves passed on. On any given Shabbat, those names are read and remembered, but there is no one to say Kaddish for them. Jewish tradition reminds us that all of us should be remembered.

So here is the idea and an opportunity for us to do a mitzvah.

It won't be long before Rosh Hashana and New year arrives. Every new year offers the opportunity for new and creative mizvot. So beginning in the September Newsletter, the yarzheit list will now indicate some names by putting a double asterisk  next to them. This will indicate that this name needs to be adopted. At the bottom of the list will be a reminder that names with  need to be adopted.

You can adopt that name, by letting me know that you will come to services on Friday night or Shabbat morning, rise and recite Kaddish for that person. In this way, the name will live on and be remembered.

I thank Rav Malki for sharing his idea. I hope you will participate in this way, so that all our names will be a blessing.

I wish all of you a wonderful summer, renewed and refreshed for the New Year that begins on September 9. May our 120th year be filled with Mitzvot beginning after the High Holy Days.

This class, taught by Rabbi Nesson and Cantor Shana, will be meeting on Wednesday nights.

This will be a learning experience for all those who may not have celebrated a Bar or Bat mitzvah before, and for those who may have had a Bat/Bat mitzvah but who want to engage their Jewish learning on an adult level. We will cover holidays, thought, prayer, life cycle, and much more. You will also learn how to lead prayers, read from the Torah, and chant Haftorah. Our goal is a celebration on Shavuot, in June 2019.

If you are interested please let Rabbi Nesson know at ravdn@aol.com. Join our Hebrew classes, beginning this summer, to help you along.

Religious School News

Summer brings us longer hours of sunlight, more intentional leisure time - perhaps in the woods, the mountains or at the beach. For parents, summer might mean outdoor adventures as a family, relaxing with books, traveling or if the children are at camp, time to focus on one another. At MJCBY, summer is all about building more relational and engaging programming.

While I am busy planning and preparing for a new year in our Religious School, Adult Hebrew students are continuing with classes during the summer to stay connected to MJCBY and Hebrew. Three levels of Hebrew are offered on alternate Sunday mornings with Cantor Shana (beginners) and Morah Ruth (intermediate & conversational). Many of the students have children in our Religious School and have asked for Hebrew classes to be able to learn with and support their children in their studies. The classes are meeting for 6 sessions through August 26.

Wishing our MJCBY families one of the greatest gifts of this season...time! Wishing all the opportunity to find sacred moments of time alone to reflect on blessings and shared time to create stronger bonds and memories with one another to cherish beyond this summer.

"Everything in God's world can be holy if you realize its potential holiness."- Harold Kushner

Happy Summer!

The Judie Gerstein Early Learning Center

Our Summer Fun is in full swing!

The children are excited to learn all about Hawaii, Mexico, African animals, the Wild West and many other themes.

Spending time on the playground with friends and playing with water, sand and all the outdoor activities that the children are engaged in creates the perfect environment for preschoolers to enjoy their summer.

In a blink of an eye, we will be back in school so remember that school registration for 2018-19 is open. Word of mouth is our best advertisement. Please tell your friends and neighbors and have them come visit.

Have a wonderful Summer!
