FROM THE DESK OF THE RABBI

THE VIEW FROM THE TOP WHAT MOSES SAW, AND WHAT DO YOU SEE?

There is mountain in Jordan called Mt. Nevo. If you are enough of a traveler to take the journey there, you will be able to see an extraordinary sight. You will see, with your eyes, what Moses saw just before he died. I know, because I saw it too. It was on a trip to Jordan from Israel in the days when such journeys were not only possible, they were even easy to arrange.

At the end of the book of Deuteronomy, which we read every year as summer comes to an end and the holidays approach, the Torah tells the story.

G-d brings Moses to the top of this mountain and tells him to look north and south and east and west. What Moses saw, from this vantage point, in every direction was all of the promised land laid out before him. In looking straight ahead, Moses saw the plains and the city of Jericho right before his eyes, so close, he could almost touch it. On a clear day, you can stand on that mountain today and see the Dead Sea and you can see Jerusalem.

What Moses saw was not just the land. He also saw the future. He knew that the Israelites would soon cross the Jordan river below him, and inherit the land promised long ago to Abraham. In this land we would, for the first time, be handed the opportunity to put into place the ethics, morals and teachings of G-d, from the Ten Commandments to the reminder how to treat the stranger in our midst, because we knew and remembered what it meant to be a slave. We would be offered the opportunity to live lives of meaning.

Moses was 120 years old on that day, the day he stood on the top of that mountain, yet, says the Torah, his eyes were still clear and his strength was still vital.

It was 120 years ago this coming January that our congregation was founded. The leaders in those days saw a future for the Jewish community in Morristown, but I wonder if they had any sense that 120 years later that not only would we still be here, but like Moses, our strength would still be vital and our eyes still clearly focused on who we are today and who will be 120 years from now. This year will be dedicated to renewing that vision of old and paving the path for the future.

For us, with Rosh Hashanah on the door step, we are, all of us standing with Moses on that mountain. It is the time to ask- what do you see? It is time for us as individuals not only to look around, but more importantly to look inside. As we climb that summit, we ask about inner lives. What have been our successes? and our failures?

The mountain is front us. As the New Year begins, let's reach inside with our vigor and our strength to make this New Year, our 70th in a renewed Jewish state, our 120th as a congregation and community, and our individual years, one in which we will be blessed and challenged, like Moses, to see a year filled with blessing and health.

Wishing you all a happy and healthy new year.

Rabbi David Nesson

FROM THE DESK OF CANTOR SHANA

What We Say When We Pray

A long time ago, I learned in a class that all our prayers can be placed into three basic general categories: appreciation, amazement and requests. These categories can best summed up with a single expressive word each: "Thanks" - הודאות ho-da'ot, "Help?" בקשות - bakashot and "Wow!" ברכות - b'rakhot.

Initially, I have to admit, I felt some resistance to these categories, which I saw as over simplification. Aren't our prayers and wishes, reflecting the deepest wishes of our souls, the contradictions in our lives, our difficult history and the needs of our ever-changing communities, far more complex than that?

But the more I taught, not only the texts of our prayers and the more I learned about spontaneous prayer through the chaplaincy training program, I participated in a few years ago, the more I found these three categories to be helpful jumping off points for articulating just what it is our prayers express. Even at this time of year, when so many of us come together as a community for a few days of intense prayer, these three categories can apply to the mood and our thoughts as we count the changing of another year. A few examples:

Thank You for the opportunities that have been presented to us over the past year.
Thank You for all we have learned, and everything that has helped us grow.
Thank You for helping us overcome challenges and difficulties in the past year.
Thank You for protecting us and our loved ones through the dangers, near-misses, close calls -- both those of which we were aware and those of which we were blissfully ignorant.
Thank You for giving us strength to recover from our injuries and illnesses.
Thank You for the caring community of people around us.
Thank you for the gifts of the people we love in our lives: those whom we have lost in the past year, those who have come into our lives in the past year, and those have been with us for years and who we hope will stay with us in the future.

Help us to heal from the damages of this past year.

Help us to forgive those who have hurt us.

Help us to be more aware of the harm we may cause others and to make amends.

Help us to learn from those around us.

Help us to have the courage to face whatever is ahead of us in the coming year.

Help us to listen and understand.

Help us to manage the difficulties of our illnesses or long-term health conditions.

Help us to find ways to help others.

Wow -- the growth, accomplishments, courage, and compassion of our children and grandchildren continue to surpass our expectations.

Wow -- there is joy and love in the world, despite what we often read or hear in the news.

Wow -- the human ability to adapt to change is amazing.

Wow -- the drive to participate in tikkun olam, repair of the world, continues to grow, and its effects can be seen and felt. Wow -- it's amazing that we are still able to come together here today as a Jewish community, despite all the challenges Jews have faced throughout history and continue to face today.

Of course, not all of these will speak to you, but I'm sure you could add a few of your own.

I encourage you to keep the ones that you come up with on your own, as well as any of the above that speak to you, in your mind and your heart these High Holy Days, as we come together to be thankful for our blessings; to ask for help for all our needs as well as forgiveness; and to express our amazement at anything we might otherwise take for granted.

Wishing you a sweet and happy 5779 - גמר חתימה טובה G'mar Hatimah Tovah!

FROM YOUR PRESIDENT

In a recent interview, Billy Joel, the legendary entertainer, was asked what he was proudest of. To my surprise, his answer was not about any of his musical achievements, the fame or fortune earned over his career, or the fact that he sells out Madison Square Garden on a routine basis. He said, "My ability to move on with life. I've had difficulties, but it never stopped me. Divorces didn't stop me from marrying again. Troubles with business didn't stop me from doing business. I have no bitterness about anything, even people who rip me off. I'm content with that. I'm happy. I'm having a happy ending."

In a unique way, Mr. Joel reminds us that while we may not achieve our desired outcome at first, we have the unique ability to learn, rebound and grow from our experiences, and thus still achieve a happy ending – a fitting message for the High Holy Day season.

I am looking forward to an exciting year at Morristown Jewish Center. As the synagogue celebrates its 120th anniversary this year, we have much to be proud of. Consider the multitude of life cycle events that have taken place here over the years, and those who have deep roots here, going back decades and multiple generations. "120 and Beyond" is so fitting a theme for the year...it reveres our history, but simultaneously focuses on the future. We can only learn history, but the future we can shape...together.

I wish you and your family a very sweet new year, filled with much success, joy and peace, and one that you can find your happy ending.

Morristown Jewish Center has graduated from the four year program co-sponsored by the Jewish Community Foundation of Greater MetroWest and the Grinspoon Foundation.

We have received $34,000 over the years for making our commitment each year of the program.
We continue going forward to expand our Legacy

NEW YEAR'S MESSAGE FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

As we enter the new year, my thoughts adwell upon being Jewish and what it means:

To me, being Jewish means recognizing my responsibility during my lifetime. Being Jewish means affirming life and the moral choice each of us has, to bring us all a little closer for a world at peace and in harmony.

Being Jewish means celebrating the fact that Jews were the original revolutionaries - the first to challenge the status quo and insist on the right to worship differently than the majority, while still being treated equally under the law. Today, we call this pluralism, and it is a bedrock principle of democratic societies.

To me, being Jewish means welcoming the pioneering Jewish effort to establish a universal moral code of conduct, where previously there was none to speak of. It's not by accident that America's Founding Fathers chose the words of Leviticus for our nation's Liberty Bell: "Proclaim liberty throughout all the land and unto all the inhabitants thereof."

To me, being Jewish means pursuing justice, to treat my neighbor as I would wish to be treated, to welcome the stranger in our midst, to be sensitive to the environment and to seek peace.

To me, being Jewish means the joy of belonging and community wherever I go; the meaningful and symbol-laden annual holiday cycle; the extraordinary contribution of the Jewish people to advancing the frontiers of world civilization; and the admirable, almost unimaginable, determination to persevere against all odds.

To me, being Jewish means knowing that in fighting against anti-Semitism and for Israel's right to live in peace and security, I am affirming the highest values of tolerance and democracy for all.

To me, being Jewish means pride in the immense Jewish contribution to the defense of human dignity and human rights. Not by accident, the Hebrew Bible — from the exodus from Egypt to the very concept of the Promised Land — was a source of inspiration for the American civil rights movement. Strikingly, Jews have never been satisfied with things as they are.

And finally, as Nobel laureate Elie Wiesel once said, to me, being Jewish means not necessarily seeking to make the world more Jewish, but rather more human. That is the goal animating our people, through good times and bad, from the very beginning of this extraordinary historical journey to the present day.

The time has come to once again

offer an adult bar/bat mitzvah class beginning after the High Holy Days.

This class, taught by Rabbi Nesson and Cantor Shana, will be meeting on Wednesday nights.

This will be a learning experience for all those who may not have celebrated a Bar or Bat mitzvah before, and for those who may have had a Bat/
Bat mitzvah but who want to engage their Jewish learning on an adult level.
We will cover holidays, thought, prayer, life cycle, and much more.
You will also learn how to lead prayers, read from the Torah, and chant Haftarah. Our goal is a celebration on Shavuot, in June 2019.

If you are interested please let Rabbi Nesson know at ravdjn@aol.com.

NEW TORAH FUND PIN FOR 5779!

Atid means "future" in Hebrew. As Women's League for Conservative Judaism enters its second century, Torah Fund begins its 77th year, and the State of Israel enters its 71st year. We look forward with joy to our future together with you, our Sisterhood members and supporters of Torah Fund.

Atid usually appears in the phrase "le'atid lavo," which means "in the future to come." This means either the day when the Messiah will come, orolam haba, the afterlife. Israelis, referring to this life, are known to say with optimism, "Yesh atid," which means "there is a future!"

Our Sisterhoods provide the social and educational networks – the extended family – that help us go forward into our future, as Jewish women, with confidence.

The 5779 Torah Fund pin envelopes the Hebrew word for "future" (atid) with a stylized Magen David. It represents our wish for a distinctly Jewish future, for ourselves as individuals, for our families, and our communities.

What is Sisterhood?

Definition of SISTERHOOD

- 1 a : the state of being a sister
b : sisterly relationship
- 2 : a community or society of sisters;
especially : a society of women
in a religious order
- 3 : the solidarity of women based on shared conditions, experiences, or concerns

At MJCBY, Sisterhood is a group of vibrant women of all ages who support each other and the synagogue in many ways. By joining Sisterhood and getting involved, you become part of a wonderful circle of women who work together for the benefit of our MJCBY community.

Our fundraising efforts, including the High Holiday Campaign, Mah Jongg Tournaments, Kiddush Committee and the Judaica Gift Shop, have resulted in many beautification and other projects throughout the synagogue. Did you know that Sisterhood was involved in the following projects?

- Children's Playground
- Ballroom and Herman Frigand Hall renovations
- High Holiday Break the Fast celebrations
- Welcome Gift to all new members
- Carpeting in the Ballroom and Hallways and more recently the Sanctuary and Chapel
- New ceiling in Shalom Yeladim
- Helped fund the installation of the Lift

We hope that you will consider joining Sisterhood for 2018-2019 for $36.00. You will feel good about participating and who knows, you may even make some new friends!

Please accept my $36.00 Sisterhood dues for the year 2018/19.

Religious School News

Welcome home, MJCBY Religious School students and families. I hope your summer was filled with friends, and shared adventures. Looking ahead to the new year, students and families are invited to engage in programming together! Chagim or holidays anchor us: to MJCBY, to family, to home, to the Jewish people and to memory. They remind us of who we are and where we come from, providing an element of constancy even when other parts of our life change. Our Jewish holidays have been celebrated at these same dates, on our Hebrew calendar, in different lands, in different ways, through the generations.

Please join our MJCBY Religious School students for our first interactive:

Rosh Hashanah Seder      Wednesday, September 12

Family Taschlich      Sunday, September 16

Pancake Breakfast      Sunday, September 23

Please read the fliers in the bulletin and save the dates!!

WELCOME, TOMER!

Our Morristown Jewish Center participates in the 'Rishonim' program from Greater Metro West Federation, which welcomes young Israelis into our community to create a living bridge between MJCBY and Israel. These young men and women take the year between graduating High School and before their Army service to come to our congregation and other Jewish institutions in our area.

This year we welcome Tomer Speier, who will be teaching in our religious school and participating in many congregation events.

Tomer was born in the USA due to her father's work. Today, she lives in Ra'anana. She has two sisters – one older, currently serving in the IDF, and one younger, in 7th grade. She spends her free time as a counselor in the "Tzofim" and pursuing her passion, dancing. Her dance troupe regularly volunteers to perform for the residents of senior citizens' homes. She majored in chemistry, psychology and economics. Last year, she also served as head of her school's student council.

IT'S SHALOM YELADIM CHALLAH TIME!

It's a great time to order challah and benefit our preschool! SY will be offering WEDNESDAY delivery for religious school families!

The challah we offer is fresh baked (and really delicious!) and will be delivered every week SY is in session minus a few holidays. The challah is made locally in a nut free facility, is certified kosher and is much tastier than what is available in local grocery stores. It freezes really well and makes awesome french toast.

We have two options for delivery:-WEEKLY (delivered every Wednesday) or - MONTHLY (delivered the first Wednesday of each month. If school is closed on the first Wednesday of the month it will arrive the following week)

Challah will be delivered beginning September 26, through June 5, 2018, with some exceptions.
There are four varieties: Water (egg-free), Egg, Whole Wheat and Egg Challah Rolls.

Please be sure to complete the form and payment in full must be received by September 13. Checks should be made payable to SHALOM YELADIM and send it to SY labeled: MJC BY SY CHALLAH ORDER - 177 Speedwell Ave., Morristown, NJ 07960

Our clergy is here for you.

Please let us know when you need us—if someone is ill or in the hospital—or when you want to share your good news: a new baby, a marriage, or other simcha. We want to know, but you have to tell us. Please call the office at (973) 538-9292 or email office@mjcby.org.

Special note: Let us know if you or a family member would like a visit from the Rabbi due to illness. HIPPA privacy laws prevent us from receiving this information.

Our Gemilut Hasadim committee is able to provide support for those that need it. Please contact Meryl Balaban at meryleo@aol.com.

When you have experienced the death of a loved one, please contact Rabbi Nesson at (973) 538-9292 or (973) 285-9772 before you make any plans. In this way, he will be most helpful in making these preparations in a proper Jewish manner.
