A MISSION TO REMEMBER

This past October I had the honor of traveling to Israel as part of the Greater MetroWest CommUNITY mission to Israel. I have been to Israel many times. I have been to Israel to study, to visit family, to lead congregation tours, for conventions and for conferences. But this mission was unlike anything I have ever experienced. There were more than 470 members of the Greater Metro West community, and about 20 members of our congregation. Many of our congregation were together on Bus 8 (8 is Great!), and some were on other buses. No matter which Bus you were on, the opportunity to be on this Mission provided an amazing experience for everyone.

In the coming months, members of our congregation will be sharing the highlights and special moments they experienced. Ask anyone who went on this mission, and they will tell you that it was the mission of a lifetime. In this article I am the lead off article.

There were two central goals around which this mission was built. First, it was the opportunity to celebrate the 70th anniversary of the modern state. Second, the mission highlighted many of the partnerships, programs and special relationships our community participates in, especially in the South (towns such as Ofakim, Mabuim, Kibbutz Erez and Arad and others.)

From the opening parade in Tel Aviv, to a tour along the security fence, from a visit to the Israeli Naval Base in Haifa, to our partnership programs in the South, every day was highlight after highlight. I had the unique opportunity to meet with Palestinian leadership in Ramallah and to enter the archives of Yad Vashem. We all made a video of the song, One Day, at Beit Guvrin, and celebrated the pure joy of Shabbat in Jerusalem.

Bus 8 is Great

Along with the places we visited were the people we met. Michael Oren and Miri Eisen, Rabbi Lau, MK Isaac Herzog, to name a few. We were witness to the stunning moment when our Federation reunited two lone soldiers with their families from Ukraine!

One of the wonderful honors of this mission was for me to get know many other MetroWest Rabbis, from all different movements. What we shared was our love of Israel and that is the tie that binds

For me, perhaps the most memorable moments were in the opportunity for me to share my knowledge and love of the land and people of Israel with our members and others from Bus 8, along with the new friendships I made, friendships that will last a life time.

There is no more important connection for Jews around the world than the land and people of Israel. I hope to start working on a congregation trip to Israel. If you are interested, please let me know.

Rabbi Nesson

At 8 am, on a sunny and warm Friday morning, the entire MetroWest Federation Mission Group (numbering 470) boarded their buses and went to Yad Vashem. Everyone was pre-assigned to a tour. My roommate Eileen Glasser and I were a part of the Architecture Group and had an excellent docent leading us through the new Holocaust History Museum, built by world renowned architect Moshe Sadie. It is 4 times the size of the original historical museum it replaced. The designer of the museum and exhibits is Dorit Harel.

After the tours, the entire mission group assembled at the Jewish Soldiers and Partisan Monument, an amphitheater overlooking the Jerusalem hills. What a privilege to be a part of this wonderful ceremony! Wreaths were dedicated in memory of the fallen soldiers and partisan fighters. We sang Hatikvah. We heard a children's harmonica group play.

Rabbi Lau, now 81 years old, delivered an extraordinary speech about his early life and his brother Naphtali Lavie. (Naphtali Lau-Lavie was an Israeli journalist, author, and diplomat who served as a spokesman for Moshe Dayan, Shimon Peres, and Yitzhak Shamir.) Rabbi Lau brilliantly described many events which shaped his life and led to his devotion and commitment to the state of Israel and to the Jewish people. He spoke for at least 40 minutes to a rapt audience and received a well earned standing ovation at his conclusion.

For me, being at Yad Vashem, having gone through the new museum, hearing Rabbi Lau speak was the most memorable event of an exhilarating week.

WHO ARE THE ROMANI? EUROPE'S ANCIENT SOUTH ASIAN TRANSPLANTS

Sunday, December 16 - 10 am

MJCBY invites you to a study in the rich culture and difficult history of persecution. With Sheetal Bangalore - an 11th grade student at Morristown High School, will present a fascinating talk on the Romani people and their culture. Originally of Indian descent, the Romani migrated to the European continent. Besides delving into the culture, language, and religious practices of the Romani, the talk will also highlight the stereotyping and persecution of the Romani and the similarities in culture and history to the Jewish people.

Sunday, December 16 - at 7pm

On a summer day in 1945, an Orthodox man and his grown son arrive in a small village in Hungary while the villagers prepare for the wedding of the town clerk's son. The townspeople – suspicious, remorseful, fearful, and cunning – expect the worst and behave accordingly.

A superb ensemble cast, lustrous black and white cinematography, and historically detailed art direction contribute to an eloquent drama that reiterates Thomas Wolfe's famed sentiment: you can't go home again.

This movie has been critically acclaimed. The New York Times has called it "gorgeous and absorbing." As recently as a few months ago, it was being shown in theaters. Please join us (and invite your friends!) for this unforgettable film. A lively discussion will follow. As always, the film and snacks are free.

NEW TORAH FUND PIN FOR 5779!

Atid means "future" in Hebrew. As Women's League for Conservative Judaism enters its second century, Torah Fund begins its 77th year, and the State of Israel enters its 71st year. We look forward with joy to our future together with you, our Sisterhood members and supporters of Torah Fund.

Atid usually appears in the phrase "le'atid lavo," which means "in the future to come." This means either the day when the Messiah will come, orolam haba, the afterlife. Israelis, referring to this life, are known to say with optimism, "Yesh atid," which means "there is a future!"

Our Sisterhoods provide the social and educational networks – the extended family – that help us go forward into our future, as Jewish women, with confidence.

The 5779 Torah Fund pin envelopes the Hebrew word for "future" (atid) with a stylized Magen David. It represents our wish for a distinctly Jewish future, for ourselves as individuals, for our families, and our communities.

Contact Linda Rosenbaum to get yours.

JACOB LEV WEINER

Melissa and Rich Weiner invite and welcome the Congregation to join them in celebrating the Bar Mitzvah of their son, Jacob Lev, who will be called to the Torah on December 15, 2018. Jake is a seventh grade student at Randolph Middle School.

The youngest child, with two older sisters, Jake holds a special place in the heart of his family. He is kind, funny, smart and hard working. He is a loyal friend and cares deeply for his community. He is also adept at negotiating two older sisters by endearing himself to them with humor and sensitivity. One does not have to look hard to find Jake outside with a stick or ball in his hand. Jake plays travel basketball for Randolph and SBA, and plays lacrosse on both Randolph and the Patriot Elite teams.

In his spare time, Jake also dabbles in recreational soccer. If he isn't playing ball, he is watching it! He appears strongly confused as he roots for football in Denver, basketball in Boston and of course for his beloved Yankees in the Bronx. Being more of a numbers guy, Jake dreams of being a sports analyst one day, and definitely not an English major.

Jake is very proud of his mitzvah project JAM KANCER IN THE KAN, where he and fellow MJCBY students Jack and Lilly Levine, organized a community KAN JAM tournament. Together with friends, from young to old, the trio raised over $7000, packed 100 chemo comfort packages and drafted over 100 get well cards. Half the money was donated to JAM KANCER FOUNDATION, and the other to the Valerie Fund at Goryeb Children's Center in Morristown Memorial Hospital.

Jake feels fortunate to welcome friends and family from Massachusetts, Maine, Pennsylvania, New York, Florida, Maryland and more as he enjoys this momentous lifecycle event. Jake and his entire family send the deepest thanks to the clergy and staff for helping prepare him for his big day. A special note to Cantor Shana for her attention and kindness. Also, a big hug to Rabbi Nesson who has been such an important part of our family's sim-chot. Rabbi Nesson presided over Jake's brit milah, and now thirteen years later helps him take this giant step into adulthood. The content and lessons you both have taught Jake will serve him well as a Jewish adult.

DINA EISENBERG

We invite you to share in our happiness when our daughter, Dina, is called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah on December 22, 2018. Dina is an honors student in the eighth grade at Randolph Middle School, and her favorite subject is Language Arts.

Dina has a wide range of interests and is always up for trying a new sport or activity. She plays the cello in the school orchestra; taken dance lessons, art classes, and tennis lessons and she has played lacrosse, volleyball, softball and soccer. In the winter, you can always find Dina on the ski slopes. At home, Dina is known for having a "green thumb," and she also loves to cook and bake from scratch. She is wonderful with animals and takes good care of her dog, Tasha.

For her Mitzvah project, Dina chose to volunteer at the Community Soup Kitchen. Dina arrives at the soup kitchen ready to work, help and to interact in a sincere way with the guests. She brings smiles and warmth each time she serves lunch.

Our family joined Morristown Jewish Center in the Fall of 2017. We are grateful for the support we have received from Cantor Shana, Rabbi Nesson, and the administration at MJCBY. Dina quickly connected with the other students in her religious school class. We are very proud of how Dina made the transition to MJCBY with ease. Dina's siblings followed suit. Her big sister, Sophie, serves as a Madricha in the Kindergarten class. Her younger brother, Max, is in fifth grade at the Religious School.

Thank you for the warm welcome to MJCBY! We look forward to sharing Dina's special day with all of you.

MORRISTOWN JEWISH CENTER BEIT YISRAEL IS YOUR COMMUNITY.

Our clergy is here for you.

Please let us know when you need us—if someone is ill or in the hospital—or when you want to share your good news: a new baby, a marriage, or other simcha. We want to know, but you have to tell us. Please call the office at (973) 538-9292 or email office@mjcby.org.

Special note: Let us know if you or a family member would like a visit from the Rabbi due to illness. HIPPA privacy laws prevent us from receiving this information.

Our Gemilut Hasadim committee is able to provide support for those that need it. Please contact Meryl Balaban at meryleo@aol.com.

When you have experienced the death of a loved one, please contact Rabbi Nesson at (973) 538-9292 or (973) 285-9772 before you make any plans. In this way, he will be most helpful in making these preparations in a proper Jewish manner.

Back by Popular Demand!
Support Sisterhood's new fundraising effort!
December 3 - 17, 10am-5pm

J&S Designer Flooring in Morristown is generously putting aside hundreds of carpeting remnants that are available to you for simply making a "reasonable" donation to Sisterhood.

The quality of their carpets is remarkable, and we are sure you will find just the right size and pattern that will beautify your home and office! Your participation will help us with our effort to replace the carpeting in the sanctuary and chapel.

Here's how it works:

- Stop by J&S Designer Flooring
- Pick out a remnant that you must have from a vast selection of sizes and designs
- Sizes up to 60 Square Feet – for example: 6' x 9', 4' x 12' as well as many narrow pieces that are suitable for runners or stairs
- Make a donation. Write a check payable to Morristown Jewish Center Sisterhood
