Presidents' Message

KATHY NEIBART

& REBECCA WANATICK

As we move into 2021, we focus on the possibilities for our months ahead with a new vaccine, warmer days and the hope of being able to physically come together as an MJCBY community. The phrase, "light at the end of the tunnel" continues to echo through so many conversations recently. Things certainly seem to be more hopeful. In looking for a Jewish connection to this phrase, we thought about Purim, which falls at the end of this month. Purim...the time when we were last physically together as a community.

At the beginning of the Megillah, G-d's light is hidden from the Jewish people. We were in exile and being persecuted (sounds like many familiar holiday tales). As the story progresses, Esther and Mordechai realized that they had the opportunity to do something to save their own people, something to make a difference for themselves and the lives of others. They were able to see a "light at the end of the tunnel," and took action to achieve their goals.

As we move through these next few months, we need to continue to persevere and look for those bright moments. We see the many ways by which we continue to help protect ourselves and others. We wear our masks, keep our physical distance and look forward to receiving the vaccine when it's our time. We see the "light at the end of the tunnel" too. We need to recognize that it won't happen without our contributions. Just as Esther and Mordechai stood up and took action, we need to take responsibility, step up and do our part to increase the light.

As an MJCBY community, we continue to be here for our members, have welcomed new people and have found new and creative ways to see one another. We look forward to seeing everyone again soon, both online and hopefully in person before too long. Continue to hold onto hope and look for the "light at the end of the tunnel." As always, please let us know if there is anything we can do to help you and your families.

Who Was That Masked Man? A Proposal for Purim Unveiled

In the late 1940's and into the 1950's one of the most popular T.V. shows was, The Lone Ranger. Without going into the story line, suffice it to say the main character,

The Lone Ranger himself, always wore a mask. At the end of every episode, after the Lone Ranger and his close friend and ally, the Native American, Tonto, saved the day, just as they rode off into the sunset, one of the grateful people who had been helped or saved, would ask: "Who was that masked man?" They never got an answer, only the sight and sound of the hero turning to his trusted steed and exclaim: Hi Ho, Silver-away!

Those watching at home knew the backstory and understood why the face of the hero was always covered by a mask. But it was always left for those who needed his help on the show to wonder: Who was that masked man?

As we approach Purim, we come face to face with masks. In one of the most well known Purim songs we even sing about Mashaychot.

But why? Why and when did wearing masks become such a well known and celebrated part of the Purim celebrations? Wearing masks is certainly not in Megillat Esther. The Megillah sets out four mitzvot for Purim: Hear the Megillah, Give Matanot L'aevyonim- tzedakah to the poor- Mishloach Manot- sending gifts of food to our friends and Seudah - a festival feast. Not a mask in sight.

Wearing masks on Purim most likely (according to some historians) started in the 1400's in the Jewish communities of Italy, borrowed from the many Carnivals that took place. From there, the custom of masks and even carnivals spread around the Jewish world. Only then do Jewish sources go back to find a way to suggest that of course, wearing masks was there all along. One idea is that Esther hid her Jewish identity in order to become Queen. Another suggestion goes to the moment when Mordechai was dressed in the King's clothes to be honored. The third idea is that G-d was hidden in the story all along.

What is the purpose of a mask? When you go a party or a carnival wearing a mask, the idea is to be in disguise, so that no one really knows who you are. That is why most masks cover the top half of our face. As if to say: Guess who I am?

Today, wearing a mask suggests something so startlingly different. We wear masks not for fun, but for health and protection for ourselves and for those around us.

Notice the masks we wear today. Not over the top half of our face but over the bottom half of our faces. When people look at us, they cannot see if we are smiling. Are we happy, or something in between?

So now let me unveil my proposal for Purim this year. The chanting of the Megillah will be virtual. That gives us the opportunity to be free from wearing a protective covid mask. Let me, therefore, propose that each of us make our own mask covering the top half of our face. And let's use our creativity to create a mask to let people know who you really are. What do you want people to know about you? At the same time we can leave the bottom of half of our faces free, so that we can sing, smile and celebrate.

Who is that masked person? This year for Purim, it's you! So let yourself shine!

Haq Purim Samayach!

WHAT IS GEMILUT HASADIM?

The Gemilut Hasadim Committee is here to help support you and your family. We provide assistance to our MJCBY families who are experiencing illness, recovering from surgery or need help at a difficult time. We provide meals to help comfort them and lessen one burden of needing to cook during these times.

We are looking for volunteers to make an occasional meal for a MJCBY member who is in need.

If you are interested in helping others or in need, contact the MJCBY office or the Elisa Udaskin at eudaskin@gmail.com. We will discuss your needs and provide meals for you and your family.

Because of the pandemic, Nourish.NJ has not been able to operate in its normal way, by serving guests moving though a serving line. Instead, they have been handing out bags containing sandwiches, fruit cups, a drink and other goodies. It's not an ideal situation – hot meals are not possible in this arrangement, but the food is nourishing and provides needed sustenance.

For several years, the lunch food distribution has been augmented by providing breakfast, with Nourish.NJ opening at 8 am to accommodate guests. The pandemic has interrupted this activity as well. To compensate, they have begun a new program, called Rise & Shine Breakfast Bag Program where guests are provided with non-perishable food (e.g. shelf-safe milk, cereal, fruit cups, etc.) One of the interesting developments that has come out of this new program is that school-aged children are stopping by the Nourish.NJ location (which recently relocated to 36 Sussex Avenue, just up the block from the shul).

As we are unable to volunteer on our normal 4th Sunday of the month stint at Nourish.NJ, this program provides us an opportunity to volunteer by purchasing these ingredients, assembling them and delivering them to Noursh.NJ.

For January, students in our Shalom Yeladim, and Religious School have helped out – the SY kids by decorating the bags and the RS kids doing the assembling. This effort teaches our youth the important message of helping others in our community.

I invite all of our MJCBY families to help in this effort, either by volunteering or by donating to our MJCBY Soup Kitchen fund (providing 100 bags cost about $250). With all of us working together, we will make it through this difficult time and provide needed assistance to less fortunate people in our community.

Life Long Learning

January's Life Long Learning Programs included a fascinating talk by author Scott Seligman on his latest book, "The Great Kosher Meat War of 1902: Immigrant Housewives and The Riots That Shook New York City." Scott enthralled us with the extensive research he did into this one of a kind story!

Rabbi Nesson launched a new series: "Coffee, Conversation, and Current Events" in which members can come together to enjoy each other's company and great conversation with the Rabbi.

In honor of Martin Luther King Day, a fascinating film entitled "They Ain't Ready for Me" was sent to participants, followed by a discussion via zoom about the film's heroine Tamar Menasseh, an African American Rabbinical student and mother, leading the fight against violence on the South Side of Chicago, and beyond.

Tu B'Shevat was celebrated with a fun and delicious tree shaped Challah Bake led by Cantor Shana, as well as Cantor Shana's highly acclaimed mystical Tu B'Shevat Seder!

Please join us on February 7 in honor of Jewish Disabilities month as Kalman Samuels, the founder of the Shalva National Center in Israel (www.shalva.org) shares his story with us. Kalman will take us on an odyssey through his early life as a Canadian child of the 60's and his unlikely path to becoming an ordained Rabbi in Jerusalem; from the idyllic beginnings of starting a family through the labyrinths of hospital wards and court rooms. As a result of a personal promise to help others, the Samuels family established the Shalva organization; but they could have never dreamed that this grass roots, local playgroup would one day become one of the largest and most advanced centers for disability care and inclusion in the world.

The week of Purim will be an exceptionally busy and exciting one here at MJCBY! Starting with a virtual Hamantashen bake on Sunday February 21, on to a virtual grogger making on Tuesday February 23, a Purim Shpiel on February 24, a Megillah Reading with costume contest on February 25, and Purim Cocktails for the adults on February 27! Please join us for any or all of these fun events!

Happy Purim!

A Thank you:

I wish to thank all who had extended condolences to me on the death of my father, Joseph Terp, in December. In the December newsletter, I had written about the things I missed. Hugging my father along with the intimacy was one of the things I missed. In the end, I was able to give my dad a final hug goodbye in the Emergency room.

The love that was showered on me and Gerry was overwhelming. Being part of the MJCBY family is a blessing and that is why we consider MJCBY our home.

Thank you again for everyone's thoughtfulness, whether a meal, a card, a text or an email.

Words cannot express how grateful I am,

Donna Gross

Family News

We invite you to share in our happiness "online" when our son, Maxwell, is called to the Torah as a Bar Mitzvah on February 6, 2021. Max is and his favorite subject is Science.

Max has a wide range of interests and is always up for trying a new sport or activity. His favorite sport, by far, is basketball. He also loves to play chess or any type of board game. At home, Max is known for being helpful and is always the first to volunteer and lend a helping hand. He is also wonderful with animals and takes good care of his dog, Tasha.

For his Mitzvah project, Max will be collecting new and gently used sports equipment to donate to children in need. Max wants to make sure that other children have the equipment they need to play the sports they love.

Our family is incredibly grateful for the support we have received from Cantor Shana, Rabbi Nesson, Flo Sager, Miriam Krinsky, Max's religious school teachers, and the office staff at MJCBY. We appreciate their help in preparing Max for his Bar Mitzvah, especially during these unprecedented times.

We are very proud of how well Max was able to adapt and "virtually" prepare for his Bar Mitzvah. Max has been incredibly engaged in his preparations and eager to learn. Also, it has been a joy to watch Max's older sisters, Sophie and Dina, support and mentor him along the way.

We look forward to sharing Maxwell's special day with all of you.

Religious School

After a relaxing winter break, Religious School resumed on January 6. It was wonderful to see all the smiling faces of our students again - both in person and on zoom!

Our students continue to make wonderful progress in all of their classes, which we shared with parents in our mid year progress reports, as well as in the detailed mid-year curriculum reports that each class received.

During music classes, Cantor Shana taught us a variety of exciting new songs and prayers, including Tu B'Shevat songs! On Tu B'Shevat itself (which fell on a Wednesday this year), our Wednesday students enjoyed an exciting Tu B'Shevat Seder led by Cantor Shana. Because the Seder included food, we all joined via zoom that day. It was delicious, fun, and meaningful!

All of our teachers have especially exciting activities planned in preparation for Purim, and February promises to be lots of fun at Religious School!

We are excited to present a fabulous Purim Shpiel on February 21 to the entire community, written and directed by Cantor Shana, starring our 6 and 7 grade students!

Happy Purim from MJCBY Religious School
