WHAT IS GEMILUT HASADIM?

The Gemilut Hasadim Committee is here to help support you and your family. We provide assistance to our MJCBY families who are experiencing illness, recovering from surgery or need help at a difficult time. We provide meals to help comfort them and lessen one burden of needing to cook during these times.

We are looking for volunteers to make an occasional meal for a MJCBY member who is in need.

ELISA UDASKIN

If you are interested in helping others or in need, contact the MJCBY office or the Elisa Udaskin at e.udaskin@gmail.com. We will discuss your needs and provide meals for you and your family.

FESTIVAL ON THE GREEN

FROM THE DESK OF THE RABBI

Of Thanksgiving and Passover, Of Hanukkah and Sukkot

A few years ago in pre-pandemic times, I ran into someone I knew from the community at Shoprite just before Thanksgiving. She wished me Happy Thanksgiving. As she walked away, she suddenly spun around and said, 'Oh, wait a minute, I didn't mean to offend you. Do you celebrate Thanksgiving?' Of course, I assured her, and wished her a Happy Thanksgiving.

As we enter November, Thanksgiving comes to mind, but it's not only that holiday. Thanksgiving historically is connected to our Holiday of Sukkot with a touch of Passover, and this year, we can even see a link to Hanukkah, which is coming up at the end of the month.

The Pilgrims and the Puritans, in their quest for religious freedom, saw their journey to America as parallel to the Israelite Exodus from Egypt - England was Egypt - the King was Pharaoh - the Atlantic was the Red Sea, and they were on their way to the Promised Land. Many of the Puritans took biblical names and there was even discussion of making Hebrew the official language in the New World.

The quest for Religious freedom by the Pilgrims has an echo from Hanukkah. What were the Macabees in search of, if not release from Antiochus who would dictate how the Jews prayed and lived their lives? This is why they fought. This is why they restored the Temple. This is why they lit the Menorah.

The very first Thanksgiving was modeled on Sukkot, a time of the Harvest and a time to give thanks.

The main theme of Thanksgiving is found right in the name. There can be no more Jewish idea than that of saying thank you. Whenever we sit down to eat, we say a blessing of thanks for the food, not just a big family Thanksgiving feast. Our tradition is the one that says we should say 100 blessings every day.

When we gather this month on Thanksgiving and light our candles on Hanukkah, when this spring we will celebrate Pesach and next fall return to Sukkot, let's remember that this month of November, and our Jewish holidays throughout the year all bring us back to these messages - the quest for religious freedom, and the purposeful attention to give thanks.

Life Long Learning

The Hebrew month of 'Cheshvan' is the only month on the Jewish calendar without holidays or significant dates to commemorate. Yet here at MJCBY we make sure there is never a dull moment, and many opportunities for our members of all ages to learn and engage in meaningful activities as a community!

Rabbi Nesson's new series of Thursday night classes entitled "Will the Real Messiah Please Stand Up?" are off to a great start. Our Hebrew classes for adults with Morah Ruth Barbut are ongoing, and continue to be a popular program for adults seeking to learn (or improve) their Hebrew.

Our youth group gathered for a fun Mitzvah scavenger, as they hunted for clues of different Mitzvot around the MJCBY property.

Young families with children up to grade 2 gathered for our first T.G.I.S. (Thank G-d It's Shabbat) of the year, celebrating with song, stories, and Shabbat activities.

Please join us on Kristallnacht, November 9, to commemorate the notorious Night of Broken Glass. We will hear from some of our very own members who are children of Holocaust survivors. A zoom link will be sent via email closer to the event.

Luckily, the month of 'Kislev' always follows 'Cheshvan', and with it we get to celebrate Hanukkah! We have four Hanukkah events this year for all to enjoy. The Men's Club will be hosting the entire MJCBY community on night 3 via zoom and in person with a giant sparkler Menorah and delicious food! On December 1, night 4 of Hanukkah, we will be celebrating on the Morristown Green! There will be treats, singing, and more. Sisterhood will host us all on night 5. We will wrap up the festivities with an exciting Hanukkah party at MJCBY on Sunday, December 5. Don't miss our Hanukkah theater, Menorah lighting, songs, interactive dreidel game, and more. We hope you can join us for one or all of these events!

AMY WEINSTOCK

Things to be thankful for...

This month not only brings Thanksgiving celebrations that are likely to be more typical than our last, but it also brings the start of Hanukkah before the month comes to an end. Both are holidays about gratitude.

When we think about gratitude, we are reminded that this time last year, we did not feel free to gather together. We were a community brought together solely by Zoom and electronic communications. We were grateful then for the technology that kept us connected, rightfully so. Here we are a year later, grateful for science and vaccines, and a community that has stood strong through a crisis. We are resilient and certainly grateful to be coming back Together Again. We do so in new and creative ways to ensure everyone's health and safety. We learned the value of staying connected through online platforms, engaging new and different members of our community. We are grateful for each and every member who joins us either in person or online.

We have been incredibly fortunate to welcome new members to our community, new families and new babies, from local areas and as far away as Israel. We have many dedicated, long time members of MJCBY who continue to be engaged and contribute to the vibrancy of our community. Each and every one of our members brings new energy and spirit to our community. Please continue to invite friends to join us, share your enthusiasm by participating in community events and know that we love volunteers to help with upcoming programs. We are better when we do it all together.

For each of these things, we are thankful...

MEN'S CLUB SUMMER BIKE RIDE

Shalom Yeladim The Judie Gerstein Early Learning Center

November is very special this year because we will celebrate two of our favorite holidays - Thanksgiving and Hanukkah. Thanksgiving gives us a nice opportunity to think about all the good things we have in our lives and to realize how lucky we are. For Thanksgiving, the teachers will put up a show for the children reenacting the story of the Pilgrims and the Native American. The children really enjoy watching their teachers "on stage".

For Hanukkah, the children will learn the story, sing Hanukkah songs and make lots of fun projects. The children will learn how to play dreidel and we will talk about the fried foods we eat to remember the miracle of the oil. It is a very festive time of year.

Our Shalom Yeladim family is growing. We have new students and ongoing registration. Word of mouth is our best advertisement. Please tell your friends and neighbors and have them come visit.

DOROTHY COHEN & DONNA GROSS

November brings some wonderful things for us. Thanksgiving at the end of the month offers us a special time to be with family and friends – hopefully in person – and reflect on the things we should be thankful for. Right on its tail is Hanukkah, which is always a joyful time and another opportunity to be with family and friends – hopefully in person. We are thankful for our Sisterhood and take pride that so many within the MJCBY congregation give us their support.

Sisterhood will hold its first program on November 16th via Zoom at 7:30 PM. Susan Scheer will be our presenter as she discusses Immigration and immigration law. There is a lot of misinformation out there and she is sure to set us straight with the facts. It's sure to be an informative and insightful session. We hope you join us. Please RSVP to Peppi Glass so that she will be able to send you the Zoom connection. peppiglass@gmail.com

Also in November is our Paid Up Brunch which will be held at Glassworks in Morristown on Sunday, November 14 at 9:30. Get your creative juices flowing as we, once again, offer you something special. We will be holding this artistic endeavor at the studio where it will be closed to all but Sisterhood. We hope you can make it since we need a minimum amount of participants. Of course we will be offering fabulous raffle prizes and a 50/50. You could be a winner!

If you did not receive the paid up packet, please let us know via email, donna2525@me.com, and we will get it too ASAP.

The next Marge Elkind Book group meeting will be on Wednesday, December 15th at 7:30. The book discussion will be on Man of my Time by Dalia Sofer. Please contact Marcy Needle at marcy.needle@gmail.com for more information.

We wish you all a wonderful Thanksgiving and a joyous Hanukkah!

Donna and Dorothy

Religious School

Our Religious School students have settled into another school year filled with learning and friendship.

Our classrooms and hallways are buzzing with the sounds of interactive learning. At any given moment there are all kinds of activities happening: Hebrew domino games, Noah's Ark crafts, Parsha topic debates, music & song, and so much more! It is wonderful to hear from our parents and students how much fun Religious School is and how much our students enjoy coming. That is exactly how Religious School should be! Our aim is to be a 'hands-on, minds-on, and souls-on' school, and our warm and dedicated teachers are mindful of these goals as they create lessons that engage all the senses. We hope to see everyone for our Hanukkah play, directed by Cantor Shana and starring our grade 6 & 7 students.
